About the Tour:

There's a place that strings a distant chord of fascination within, a place that came straight out of an artist's imagination, Switzerland is indeed a land of bountiful beauty. The snow-covered Swiss Alps and the scenic lakes amidst the mountainous backdrops are something that would captivate your inner being.

The city of Zurich, famed for being Europe's largest financial centre, is the gateway to the fantasy land of white-washed mountains and snowy escapades. When you venture out for Mount Titlis on Rotair, you will step into the world of Narnia to which Lucy opened the wardrobe door. Your astonishment doesn't cease here, wait till you discover Lucerne, a city graced with medieval architecture, snuggled on the edge of Lake Lucerne amidst a snow-capped mountain. A tour to Zurich will involve all the European delights starting from its first Cog railway, cascading Rhine Falls to Zurich's little surprises like the Swiss National Museum, Zurich Opera house, and Fifa Football Museum, this 5-day tour to Switzerland will give you the best experience you can think of.
